

Blockchain Thought Leadership Conference | Blockchain For Advertising

Davis+Gilbert is a proud sponsor of the The Entrepreneurship Society's "Blockchain Thought Leadership Conference," taking place at our offices.

Richard Eisert, Davis+Gilbert's co-chair of Advertising + Marketing practice group, will moderate a panel "Blockchain For Advertising" with media exchange experts leading the advertising industry in its transformation. During this informative session, attendees will gain information on blockchain adoption and how blockchain will affect the advertising ecosystem, among other topics. This timely conference will target investors, regulators, corporate and blockchain thought leaders.
