

Corporate Synergies® 2019 HR & Finance Educational Forum | How Washington Will Impact Your Benefit Plans in 2019

Alan Hahn, Davis+Gilbert Benefits + Compensation partner and co-chair, will speak during a panel titled "How Washington Will Impact Your Benefit Plans in 2019," at a forum sponsored by Corporate Synergies, taking place in New York City on June 11.

Session Overview

From prescription drug reform to tax reform to Medicare for all, there has been a lot of new rules and regulations coming out of Washington, D.C. What does this mean for an individual's organization's health and welfare benefits plans? This panel of experts in employee benefits legislation will discuss how to prepare for the new rules, costs of new employee benefits legislation and employers' benefits compliance responsibilities & reporting obligations.
