

National Advertising Division's Annual Conference | The Future of Ad Law

Davis+Gilbert is a proud sponsor of the National Advertising Division's Annual Conference, "The Future of Ad Law," to be held virtually on September 29 – October 1.

Conference Overview

The NAD 2021 Annual Conference will discuss legal trends, parse recent developments in advertising law, share knowledge on Federal Trade Commission enforcement priorities, and discuss best practices with leaders and experts in advertising law from across the United States.

For more information and to register, please click here.