Program Overview

Privacy and data security issues continue to be primary concerns for every industry. The security threats keep increasing, and the legislative/regulatory landscape on the federal, state and international levels keep changing. Every client and attorney should be familiar with general privacy principles and laws that apply in order to properly maneuver in their industry. This session will provide an overview of the hottest issues in privacy and data security law, including:

- Privacy Programs in Global Organizations
- California Consumer Privacy Act and Digital Media
- Compliance in the Financial Services Industry
- COVID-19 Response
- The Role of State Attorneys General
- Cyber Insurance
