

Bloomberg BNA Webinar | Top Compliance Issues Every U.S. Employer Should Know

Alan Hahn, Davis+Gilbert Benefits + Compensation co-chair, will speak during a Bloomberg BNA webinar titled "Top Compliance Issues Every U.S. Employer Should Know" taking place at 2:00 p.m. EST on December 14.

Session Overview

The Trump Administration and Congress are debating legislative initiatives that would repeal, replace or stabilize the Affordable Care Act as well as to enact the first comprehensive tax reform legislation in thirty-one years. Meanwhile, Oregon, California and Illinois are actively implementing "auto-IRA" programs that some employers will be required to use as early as 2018. This webinar will discuss these hot topics, the current regulatory landscape and what might impact U.S. employers in 2018, and how to prepare for upcoming changes. Webinar participants will learn:

- What you need to know about the latest legislative and regulatory developments on Capitol Hill and at the White House impacting employer compliance
- What's happening now and beyond, on health care and tax reform legislation
- The status of state Auto-IRA retirement mandates in Oregon, California and Illinois
- How to prepare for upcoming changes and stay ahead of the compliance curve in 2018
